

COSE

Bertrand Lejoly

SERAX

Cose is a collection of accessories that can by no means be pinned down to the bathroom. The bowls, jars and soap dispenser can be used equally in the kitchen, to serve the aperitif, or as storage containers. The rounded lines fit perfectly into the simple and refined design language of the Belgian designer, Bertrand Lejoly. The craftsmanship involved in the manufacture of these porcelain objects in off-white and off-black also ensures that Cose looks unique and certainly not sterile.

BERTRAND LEJOLY

Bertrand Lejoly (°1980) grew up in the German-speaking part of Belgium, where he was influenced from a very early age by the Belgian, German and French cultures. After studying at the École supérieure des arts Saint-Luc in Liège, he gained his first work experience as an industrial designer in Germany. He then went to Milan for seven years to collaborate with the renowned designer Matteo Thun. In 2013 he became Head of Product Design with the Belgian architect Vincent Van Duysen. In 2018 Bertrand Lejoly founded his own design studio in Antwerp. Since then, he has been working together with several brands on furniture, lighting, sanitary ware and tableware. The designer describes his style as 'refined simplicity'. His objects walk the boundary between an expressive yet subtle design language. He especially likes to play with elements that are engraved in the collective memory to create timeless items for everyday use.
